STREAM
Marc Moulton

DATE
Artist Commissioned October 2015
Installed May 2017

LOCATION
2014 Woodward Avenue, Charlotte, NC 28206

DESCRIPTION
Constructed in 1956, the original Double Oaks Pool was always a place to cool down and interact with neighbors for Charlotte’s African American communities along the Beatties Ford Road and Statesville Avenue Corridors. The Charlotte Housing Partnership purchased the Double Oaks Apartments site adjacent to the original pool, in 2007 and has actively engaged in comprehensive redevelopment. This redevelopment has revitalized the area, bringing approximately 1,000 new housing units, parks and greenways, and properties to accommodate shops, restaurants and offices.

Stream, a visual column of water, inspired by the geometry of poured water presents a rhythmic flow of aquatic imagery from sky to ground. On the ground aquatic symbols “splash away” to become as colored droplets embedded into the walkway. The organically-sanded surface sparkles and reflects the color of the sky. On sunny days, the material will appear similar to flowing water, dappled silver-white with hints of sky blue. At night, internal LED lighting serves to both illuminate the sculpture’s interior while projecting an integrated shadow and light pattern into the surrounding area.

SELECTION PANEL
Suzanne Fetscher, Public Art Commission; Jonell Logan, Harvey B. Gantt Center; Bruce Clodfelter, Landscape Architect; Jose Gamez, UNCC; Irina Toshkova, New Gallery of Modern Art; Darryl R. Gaston, Community Representative; Peter Wasmer, Mecklenburg County; Mike Carroll, Brandstetter Carroll Architecture

FUNDING PARTNER
This project is funded through Mecklenburg County’s 1% for the Arts Ordinance. ASC administers the public art program for the City of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County. Artist selections and designs are approved by the appointed Public Art Commission.